These scripts often explore themes of identity, cultural pride, racial tensions, and social justice, especially within the context of Mexican-American, African-American, and Chicano communities during the 1930s and 1940s.

The term can also describe a script that employs stylistic language, dialogue, and visual cues reminiscent of the era and the cultural significance of the zoot suit. Such scripts aim to evoke the period's atmosphere and highlight the social issues surrounding the fashion and its symbolism.
