The Arabic language has a rich history that dates back over a millennium. It originated in the Arabian Peninsula and is part of the Semitic language family, which also includes Hebrew, Aramaic, and Amharic. The earliest forms of Arabic are found in inscriptions dating to the 4th century CE, but it was during the rise of Islam in the 7th century CE that Arabic gained prominence as the liturgical language of Islam and as a vehicle for cultural and scientific expression.

Throughout history, Arabic has undergone significant transformations, including:

- Classical Arabic: The form used in the Quran and early Islamic literature.
- Medieval Arabic: The language of scholars, poets, and scientists during the Islamic Golden Age.
