Origins and Early Foundations (1st?4th Century CE)

The Birth of Christianity

Christianity originated in the 1st century CE within the Jewish milieu of Roman Judea. Its foundational figure, Jesus of Nazareth, preached a message emphasizing love, forgiveness, and the coming Kingdom of God. His ministry, crucifixion under Roman authority, and subsequent reported resurrection became the cornerstone of Christian belief. Persecutions and Legitimization Persecution under Roman authorities varied from sporadic local acts to empire-wide crackdowns, notably under emperors like Nero and Diocletian. Despite these hardships, Christianity persisted, aided by its appeal to diverse social classes and its organizational structure. The Edict of Milan in 313 CE, issued by Constantine and Licinius, marked a turning point, legalizing Christianity and ending its status as an underground faith.
